

1. To lock the door, press the door handle down and lift the button up.
2. For door to lock, the door knob needs to be in a horizontal position.

The door locks when the door knob is in right position and the button is up. The door doesn't close with a key. Remember to take the key with you when going outside!

1. To lock the door, press the door handle down and lift the button up.
2. For door to lock, the door knob needs to be in a horizontal position.

The door locks when the door knob is in right position and the button is up. The door doesn't close with a key. Remember to take the key with you when going outside!

